Edwards Business Systems
Named Best Office Equipment Dealer in Greater Lehigh Valley

BETHLEHEM, PA - Edwards Business Systems (EBS), headquartered in Bethlehem, PA, has once again been named the Best Office Equipment Dealer in the Greater Lehigh Valley of Pennsylvania. This honor was recently bestowed on EBS by Lehigh Valley Business Journal, a weekly print and online publication that focuses on business news in The Greater Lehigh Valley. The Reader Rankings issue is the second one to be produced; the first being in 2018. This year, there were 45 categories ranked and voted on by the readers of the publication. According to the publication, the prestigious awards were determined by peers, clients, colleagues and customers of the Business Journal, based on their experience working with these companies and their reputation in their respective fields of business. "The 2018 Reader Rankings is our way of recognizing the loyal following that the readers of Lehigh Valley Business have for the businesses in their communities," publisher Mike O'Rourke wrote. "What makes the companies listed here so special is the devotion that many of them inspire among our business leaders."

Proud of being selected for the second year, and commenting on this achievement, Ray Fuentes, President of Edwards Business Systems said, "Our Company has continually been at the forefront of developing cost effective, efficient, quality solutions for our client's document management needs." Mr. Fuentes added, "It's not just about equipment and software, it is about knowledge, service and fast forward solutions," and he continued, "This award could only have been possible through the commitment of our team. Our employees continually strive to deliver the best in quality, technical support and dedication to our clients. We try to balance growth, innovative marketing and sales programs with a commitment to our employees and our community. This is gratifying as it represents a vote of confidence from our business community. "
